

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2013

October 25 ~ November 4, 2013

<Workshop Presentation Sessions
Producer's Special Presentations
Performances on November 4>

Tokyo Metropolitan Theatre
Suitengu-Pit

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2013

©The Asian Performing Arts Festival is the project that was launched in 2002, and this is the 11th presentation in 2013.

©Project Objectives

- 1)Promote mutual understanding and cultural exchange through performing arts.
- 2)Create and raise the standard of performing arts in Asia by artists collaboration.
- 3)Identify excellent talent and works and nurture a market to distribute them to the world.

©Participating Cities:7 Cities

Delhi, Hanoi, Kuala Lumpur, Manila, Seoul, Taipei, Tokyo

©Host City:Tokyo

©Since 2009, the APAF has focused on creation of the theatre pieces by artists' interaction; the “workshop for the international collaboration” in Tokyo and their presentations at each city.

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2013

©Workshop for International Collaboration

Artists from Hanoi, Seoul, Singapore, Taipei, and Tokyo are called in Tokyo to cooperate in the production of six short plays to be presented at the end of the workshop.

© Producer's Special Presentation

Representation of the piece love poem by the whole experience that was created together by artists in Taipei and Tokyo, and had good reviews in APAF2012

©APAF Art Camp (Performing Arts International Collaboration Intensive Course)

- The program creates a platform to develop future talent for international collaboration.
- Offers the opportunity to have experience in the making of international productions.
- Lecture by the artists from Bangkok, Hanoi, Jakarta, Manila, Seoul, Singapore, Taipei, and Tokyo.
- Opportunity to write and present reviews.
- And other various programs

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2013

©Workshop for International Collaboration

