

Asian Performing Arts Festival

The bottom of the slide features a decorative graphic consisting of several overlapping, wavy lines in shades of light blue and white, creating a sense of movement and depth.

Asian Performing Arts Festival

- ◎ The Asian Performing Arts Festival, a joint project for performing arts started in 2002, will hold its 12th session in 2014.

- ◎ Purpose of the project
  - 1) Encouraging mutual understanding and cultural exchange through performing arts
  - 2) Production of Asian performing arts and raising the level of performing arts
  - 3) Finding new performing art works and talent to build a globally recognized art market

- ◎ Participating cities: 7
Delhi, Hanoi, Kuala Lumpur, Manila, Seoul, Taipei, Tokyo

- ◎ Managing city: Tokyo

- ◎ Since 2009, production and performance of performing art works and workshops for joint production are implemented mainly in Tokyo through the exchange of artists from participating cities.

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2013

Held for the period from October 25 to November 5, 2013 (at the Tokyo Metropolitan Theatre and Suiting Pit)

© Presentation Session for the Workshop for International Collaboration

Six play acts, each about 15 minutes long, jointly produced by the artists of Hanoi, Seoul, Singapore, Taipei and Tokyo, were performed.

© Producer's Special Presentation

There was a restaging of the work jointly made by the artists of Taipei and Tokyo that had won a good reputation in the Asian Performing Arts Festival in 2012.

© APAF Art Camp (human resources development project)

This is a program to develop human resources who can play an active role in the joint production of performing arts.

- Experiencing the actual site of joint production
- Lectures given by artists from Bangkok, Hanoi, Jakarta, Manila, Seoul, Singapore, Taipei and Tokyo.
- Writing reports, etc.

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2014

Works are performed at the Tokyo Metropolitan Theatre from November 28 to 30, 2014.

Workshops and preparation are implemented at Suiting Pit.

© Performance of works by the International Joint Creation Project

Two small pieces performed in the workshop last year are performed in their full length.

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2014

- © Performance session of the International Joint Production Workshop EXT
- * Production and performance of small pieces by the producers from Bangkok and Seoul

Asian Performing Arts Festival 2014

© Performing arts international collaboration project for human resources development (APAF Art Camp)

